

WESTERLY HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

College Club Prize Goes to Lucy H. Whitford—Award of Babcock Prizes—Death of Mrs. Joseph W. Carpenter, First Civil War Widow Hereabouts—Daniel F. Mackey Dead—Wound of Ax Results Seriously.

The graduating exercises of the Western high school were held Tuesday afternoon in the Western opera house, which was crowded by the friends of the school. On the stage were seated the graduates and undergraduates, and they, with the effective decorations, the class colors of purple and white predominating, and the class motto, Non quanta, sed quatuor (Not quantity, but quality), in place of prominence, made an attractive picture. The order of exercises was as follows:

Chorus—Spring Song, Waltz, Nentwich High School Chorus.
R. A. H. Clark, director.
Robert Valentine, director.

Prayer—Rev. Clayton A. Burdick.
Essay—With Salutatory—The Early Mexicans.
Lecture—Evelyn Culley.
Oration—Obedience to Law.
Author—Forest Anderson.
Piano solo—Second Nocturne, Op. 4.

Ruth Estelle Burdick.
Oration—Alaska, the Land of Promise.
Raymond Howard Hiseox.
Essay—With Salutatory—The Possibilities of Farm Life for Girls.
Lucy Helen Whitford.
Chorus—Piano, Piano, Joe, H. Sullivan.

High School Chorus.
Presentation of class to school committee.
W. H. Bacon, principal.
Awarding of Diplomas.
Russell H. Smith, M.D.,
Chairman of school committee.

Then came the singing of the class ode by the graduating class, words by Glenn Edith Ennis and music by Ruth Estelle Burdick.

The cash prize of $50, offered by the College club of Western, Mrs. Thomas Perry, president, for excellence in Latin for the year, was awarded Lucy Helen Whitford.

The Martha C. Babcock prize, the interest on $1,000, one-half as first prize, one-sixth as second and one-third as third prize, were awarded as follows: Joseph H. Randall, first, $20; Jessie M. Gault, second, $12.50; Cassilda Pappas, third, $6.25.

The judges were Principal Silas T. Nye, Principal W. H. Bacon and Mrs. Edward M. Burke. These prizes were for best essays on subjects selected from a list submitted by Principal Bacon and were written in the school buildings in the presence of teachers at two periods. The essays were handed in with pen names, accompanied with envelopes bearing the fictitious name and the real name enclosed. After the winners were announced by the judges by pen names, the envelopes were opened and the real names of the winners announced.

The honor pupils for 1911-12 were Lela Isabella Wells, 1912; Helen Elmer Taber, 1914; William Dana Critchfield, 1915; Christine Elizabeth Krebs, 1916; Dorothy Phillips Stillwell, 1917.

Following is the list of graduates: Hannah Josephine Barber, Ruth Estelle Burdick, Phyllis Elliott Clapp, Louise Crumell, C. L. Evelyn Culley, Olive Margaret Dutton, Glenn Edith Ennis, Jessie Mary Fenelon, Jessie May Gault, Alice Lucille Hiseox, Beale West, Lucy Helen Whitford, Arthur Forest Anderson, Frank Edwin Collins, Peter Joseph Anthony Conn, Willard Raymond Randall.

For Your Poor Feet—The greatest preparation in the world is "Nufect." It is the only foot powder that absorbs perspiration without caking and destroys odors and produces antiseptic purity without checking perspiration. It prevents all such foot ills as corns, bunions and callouses and gently and rheumatic pains.

Be convinced: get a trial package at 25c, and if it proves unsatisfactory we will refund your money. The regular size contains two and a half times more powder and will be the cheaper for you to buy after the trial package has demonstrated how much good "Nufect" will really do for you.

"Nufect" as a body deodorant is as good as "Nufect" is for the feet. Lee & Osgood Co., 125 Main St.,

There is more Calach in this section of the country than in other places put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and practiced local remedies, and by steadily failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science pronounced it curable to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
